

Information for Authors

The editorship considers only those materials that fully comply with the requirements indicated below. The incomplete package of materials is not considered!

1. The submitted articles should contain the results of scientific research; they should be ready to use in the practical work of agricultural specialists, or submit cognitive interest (historical, etc.) for them.
2. The structure of the submitted material as a whole should look like this:
Rubric;
The number and the name of the specialty.
The name of reviewer, academic degree, rank, position, place of work.
The title of the article (in Russian and English).
The name of authors, academic degree, rank, position, place of work, address and phone number.
Keywords (in Russian and English).
The actual text (it is necessary to highlight headings in the text: "The purpose and methodology of research", "research results", "Conclusions. Recommendations").
The list of references (sources used).
UDC (BBK).
The name of authors, the title of the article, the summary (in Russian and English).
3. All authors provides extended summary (200-250 words) in English and Russian languages.
4. The lines of graphs and drawings in the file should be grouped. The tables are presented in the format of Word. Formulas are presented in the standard formula editor Word, structural chemical formulas in ISIS / Draw or scanned. Diagrams should be made in Excel. Drawings should be sent in electronic form, in standard graphic formats.
5. Literature should be framed as a common list; the reference with the number is indicated in the text. Bibliographic list is made out in accordance with GOST R 7.0.5-2008. References should be provided in English and Russian languages.
6. The external review is obligatory on each article. Before publishing the editorship send the materials to additional review in the leading scientific research institute appropriate profile across Russia. Attention! Reviewer can be only a doctor of sciences or a member of the Academy of Sciences!
7. The submitted materials should have written permission for publication of the Organization at which funds the work was carried out if the copyrights belong to it.
8. The authors present (at once):
The article in printed form - 1 copy, no handwritten inserts, on one side of a standard sheet, signed on the back of the last page of all authors. Font size - 12, interval - 1.5, type - Arial or Times New Roman;
The digital storage device with the text of the article in RTF, DOC;
Drawings (if available);
Review.
9. The materials that are sent in full by email are not necessary to duplicate on paper.
10. Articles will not be returned. Proof is given only for the control of authors, editing in it is not carried out.
11. The cost of publication in our magazine is 500 rubles per 1000 symbols (without spaces).

12. Publication is free for graduate students.

Our database contains 1225 authors

We have published 917 articles in 51 issues.

Dear authors!

We kindly ask you to read requirements for the sent items

Also you can download the sample for authors

Journal policy

Publishing ethics

By clicking this link you will know council editorial

Here is the information of the bulletin editorial

Here you can learn the Editorial Board

If you have any questions or suggestions, please pass here